Filing Subsequently into Probate Cases

eFilers will now be able to file subsequently into probate cases involving administration of decedent's estates, guardian and conservatorship, and trust estates in two pilot locations, Fayette and Garrard Counties. Subsequent actions include:

- Inventory
- Settlement
- Informal Final Settlement
- Proposed Settlement
- Period Settlement
- Final Settlement
- Relinquishment of a Will
- Creditor's Claim
- Motion to Sell Real Property

Advertising Fees for Probate Filings

There are no fees collected from efilers on subsequent probate filings at this time. If you submit a final settlement and an advertising fee must still be paid, you will need to remit the fee conventionally to the clerk.

Notification of Court Processing

Note from Clerk to Filer: The Circuit Clerk has accepted this envelope. A final settlement advertising fee was not collected at the time of initial filing. Please remit conventionally to the clerk's office the advertising fee pursuant to KRS 395.625. Please contact the Circuit Clerk for more information. Please remit $51.00

The circuit clerk has processed and ACCEPTED the following filing.
